SOUVENIRS OF GERMANY RAINFALL IN CORPUS CHRISTI HOME SPURNED BY SERGEANT H. CHRISTI DURING PAST GRANT OF CORPUS CHRISTI MONTH WAS 2.38 INCHES

Sergeant Chas. H. Grant, a Corpus Christi lad with the 11th Infantry, Thirty-sixth Division, in a letter to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Grant, says that when he returns to the States that he will not bring back any souvenirs from the front, but that he would like to keep certain with articles that will enable him to memory the days that he spent among the heroic people of France.

"Just a word in regard to souvenirs," writes Sergeant Grant, "I know that they are going to be expected, and I am going to do my best to have them being kept, while I am going to be Sergeant for the simple reason that I do not want to bring anything that reminds me of a station like Germany, and I don't want my friends to have anything to talk about me, such as letters. On the other hand, France is a place where the loved and remembered are held in esteem and admiration."

Sergeant Grant writes that he is in good health. He asks to be remembered to his friends here.

Notice.
All members of Corpus Christi Camp No. 262, W. O. W., are requested to attend our regular meeting, Wednesday evening December 6th, 1918. The election of officers and other matters of importance will come up.

ALL SOLDIERS TO FIND WORK IN PLANTS OF KANSAS CITY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 3.—The Chamber of Commerce of Kansas City, through its employment committee will provide work for returning fighters and for men who left curtailed local industries to work in munition plants and ship yards.

Already on file with the committee are statements from many Kansas City firms that they will re-employ every man who left them to engage in war work. Also many concerns, now operating on a larger scale than before the mobilization of the army and navy, have requested the chamber of commerce to supply them with man power from the returning soldiers. A questionnaire is being prepared to mail to every industrial and mercantile establishment.

REICHSTAG MAY MEET.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The German Reichstag will be convened shortly according to newspapers in South Germany, says a Zurich dispatch to L'Informacion.
